Keep Your Place and Magnify What You Are Reading

This is the perfect guide for those with low vision. The EZ Magnibar has either an aqua or yellow tracker line; when placed on text, it helps prevent the reader from losing their place. In addition, since it is a magnifying bar, the text is 1.5 times larger, making it easier to see. The Magnibar comes in two lengths, 6" or 9" and is 1" wide with the tracker line being 1/4" wide. The highlight line is tall enough to typically hold one line of standard text. Just slide the bar up, down, left or right to continue reading. The bar is made of clear, sturdy lucite. These and similar products are available from various online suppliers for less than $4.95. Search the words "EZ Magnibar" to find your reading aid.

This Gadget Becomes a “Stirr” for Every Pot!

The Stirr “walks” around the pot, blending flavors and keeping ingredients from sticking or clumping, in effect stirring so you don’t have to. The vendor says the soft padded feet won’t scratch so it’s safe for nonstick pots or pans. There’s even a paddle that sweeps across the bottom of the pot. Constructed of nylon and silicone, the Stirr is operated by (4) AA batteries (not included) and features three operating speeds. And according to the vendor, the detachable blades are dishwasher safe. The Stirr measures approximately 7-1/8” high x 3-1/2” in diameter. This item is available online from various vendors that sell AT products for $29.95- $36.95. Search the words “pot stir kitchen” to get your helping hand in the kitchen.

It’s Just Like Having a Extra Pair of Hands

The Baggy Rack is ideal for filling plastic baggies with sauce, soup or cereal because it holds the plastic baggies upright and open so they are always easy to fill. The vendor says with this gadget, plastic baggies will never “slump” and spill contents on the counter, and will always stay upright while you work. The rack telescopes to a full “10” to accommodate sandwich, quart and gallon-sized bags. A set of two Baggy Racks costs $9.95. Search the words “baggy racks” to find a little extra help.
